The following guidelines may help you prepare your application.

The Winchester Community Fund helps groups and organisations that:

- Operate within a 15 mile radius of Winchester. Applications from groups and organisations based outside this area will not be considered.
- Support the local area and local people.
- Help support or promote health and wellbeing, including the environment, sport, music and dance.
- Support those less able to support themselves.
- Fundraising events organised by schools.
- Customers who approach us for support in raising money for UK charities up to £250 maximum.
- Peripatetic sales team raising money for a charity local to their place of residence
- Where wellbeing is dependent upon the support of animals, e.g. Guide dogs etc.

Applications will not be considered for:

- Support outside the local area, major towns or cities or groups that supply support on a national or international basis.
- General appeals.
- Research projects.
- Religious or political causes.
- Organisations solely supporting animals e.g. rescue centres
- Heritage or building restoration projects.
- Marketing or promotional activity ie leaflets, posters, etc.
- Money to pay salaries.
- Funding for any NHS projects that should be supported by the Government.
- Dangerous activities.
