What is the difference between a pre-existing condition and pre-prescribed treatment?

A pre-existing condition would be anything that you or someone on your policy has already received dental treatment for. For instance a tooth that has already been filled; if the filling failed and needed replacing while your policy is in effect, then this would be claimable. Pre-prescribed treatment is any treatment or any course of treatment that is already planned or in progress on your policy start date or that you already know will be needed or have discussed with your dentist on your policy start date. For instance; if your dentist has told you that a tooth will need filling before you join, this would not be claimable.

When can I start claiming?

There is no waiting period to claim, except for the mouth cancer benefit which cannot be claimed in the first 90 days of your policy. You can start making use of your benefits from your policy start date. We cover pre-existing conditions, but not pre-prescribed treatment.

What does 100% NHS reimbursement mean?

The NHS has fixed prices for treatment. If you receive treatment from an NHS dentist at one of these fixed prices, you are eligible to claim 100% of the costs back from Simplyhealth. If you have selected a plan that only covers NHS charges and you do have private treatment, you are eligible to claim back the amount that your treatment would have cost if you had paid for NHS treatment.
